LEARN TO PROTECT YOURSELF FROM IDENTITY THEFT

Guard against fraudsters attempting to steal your identity and wreak havoc with your credit and good name.

The free workshop “Your Money Matters: Identity Theft” can help you learn about the prevalence of identity theft and strategies to protect yourself and those you care about. Becoming aware of new scams and staying ahead of thieves can help you avoid being a victim.

Pick up tips on monitoring accounts. Also learn how to respond promptly to erroneous transactions.

This workshop is used with permission and based on the Money Counts: A Financial Literacy Series program at the Sokolov-Miller Family Financial and Life Skills Center at Penn State.
